Board Initiatives Report – June 8, 2018

NSFM Vision: Effective local government and strong, sustainable communities

NSFM Mission: To enable effective local government for Nova Scotia’s communities by facilitating strategic advocacy, education and collaboration

Initiatives

1. Partnership Framework

Description/Update

A number of meetings have taken place in May regarding Municipal Modernization, Fire Services, and Doctor Recruitment.

The Province released its Last Mile Strategy this past week and a teleconference was held for Mayors, Wardens and CAOs to brief them on the report. NSFM is working with the province to develop a workshop for our members in early October.

The NSFM Workshop on Doctor Recruitment is being held June 18th, at the Halifax Westin. The workshop will include presentations on how recruitment is currently being managed, how the Dalhousie School of Medicine would like to work with communities; what physicians look for in deciding where they will practice, and a few communities will share their experiences in recruiting doctors to their areas.

At the Ministers Roundtable a proposed MOU on Age Friendly Communities was discussed and agreed to. Once the MOU has been signed, it will be circulated to NSFM members.

2. Cannabis Legalization

Description/Update

The province has tabled two relevant pieces of legislation, one dealing with the sale of cannabis through the NS Liquor Stores, and one amending the Smoke Free Places Act to include the smoking of cannabis. The Department of Justice presented an overview of the legislation at the NSFM Spring Workshop and their presentation is available on the NSFM website.

The UNSM/AMA Municipal Cannabis Working Group has been meeting to discuss the implications to NS municipalities. Municipalities will be able to enact further restrictions for public consumption through by laws. Concerns remain around public safety, enforcement and costs. The Committee is considering model bylaws, and approaches to health and safety in the workplace.

UNSM has supported FCM financially in the development of a guide for municipalities, and a link to this guide is available on both the FCM and NSFAM websites. It deals with planning and other issues, but not directly with policing.

FCM has developed an outline of possible costs for municipalities, and this table is also available on the NSFAM website. Some of the costing areas may not be applicable to Nova Scotia as retail will be through the NSLC, not by private operators.

The Municipal Cannabis committee is meeting June 13 to continue its work. NSFAM is continuing its discussions with the Department of Justice.

3. Fire Services Review

Description/Update

The Committee established to review the Fire Services Study and to develop an action plan continues to meet and to identify priority areas for action. The next meeting is June 11.

4. Accessibility Act

Description/Update

Municipalities will need to implement the requirements under the new Act. A Joint Provincial/Municipal Committee is working to develop tools for municipalities to use in advisory committees and action plans. For now, municipalities are encouraged to begin documenting their existing assets for accessibility. For those looking for guidance on standards, the Accessibility Directorate refers you to the Rick Hansen Foundation website.

5. Asset Management

UNSM continues to support municipalities with asset management planning, as a requirement of the 2014-24 Gas Tax Fund Agreement. UNSM recently submitted its Progress Report for the funding it received from FCM from the Municipal Asset Management Program to provide basic training and skill development resources to Nova Scotia municipalities. The Progress Report was approved by FCM and it will disburse $33,480.77 to UNSM for the work completed to date, which represent approximately 40% of the total funding. UNSM completed its 6 training courses at the later part of 2017 and is currently developing an online course for elected officials on the basics of asset management. The final initiative UNSM will produce with the FCM funding is an online module based on the Province of Nova's asset management pilot project "how to" guide for collecting data and completing condition assessments for linear assets.

6. Upcoming Events

- NSFAM Workshop on Doctor Recruitment: June 18th, Westin Halifax, 10:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Climate Change Adaptation and Mitigation Plan Report Summary of Presentation to NSFM Board Meeting, 8 Jun 2018

Climate change is a pressing issue facing all Nova Scotian municipalities. Every municipality in Nova Scotia has produced a Municipal Climate Change Action Plan (MCCAP), and the Government of Nova Scotia's Department of Municipal Affairs (DMA) has completed a review of these plans. DMA staff presented the findings of their review at the Nova Scotia Federation of Municipalities Board meeting on June 8th, 2018.

Municipal units were congratulated for producing the MCCAPs as they are an excellent starting point in preparing for climate change. MCCAPs across the province identified flooding as the most prevalent problem resulting from climate change. The analysis of the 50+ MCCAPs found that municipalities were remarkably consistent in focusing on three primary topics: at-risk infrastructure, land use planning, and emergency management.

The MCCAPs identified roads and related structures as the primary infrastructure concern for most municipalities. Municipalities reported that climate change has put many roads and related structures—including culverts, bridges, and causeways—directly in the path of flooding and erosion. When flooding and erosion occur, municipalities are concerned they will face costly maintenance and repair bills, transport disruptions, and threats to public safety.

Municipalities also identified wastewater and stormwater systems as key infrastructure concerns. Extreme weather events can overwhelm the design capacity of collection and treatment facilities, which are often engineered to utilize low-lying topographies. Many municipalities also acknowledged that drinking water supplies were a major infrastructure concern, especially when floodwaters contaminate surface and groundwater supplies.

Land use planning was among the most commonly cited adaptation actions identified in the MCCAPs. Administrative control of land usage through flood-risk zoning and floodplain mapping offers municipalities the opportunity to keep new development away from areas at high risk of flooding and erosion. Strategic thinking in land use planning can have big payoffs in managing risk.

Finally, emergency management figured largely in Nova Scotian MCCAPs. Municipalities identified public safety as a top priority and recognized that vulnerable persons would require special attention in times of emergency. Levels of vulnerability are largely dependent on demographics and location.

Municipalities are encouraged to continue to evolve their plans, through discussions in their communities and with their neighbouring municipalities.

- Recent legislative changes were discussed allowing adult offenders an opportunity to receive restorative justice rather than traditional court system. Restorative Justice is a common practice for young offenders, but will now be available for adult first time offenders who are crimes are not against a person. A presentation from the RCMP to further inform the Committee about restorative justice and the extension to adults to be scheduled for September 2017.

One of the most significant challenges faced by the RCMP is the lack of an approve road-side test for marijuana use. The Committee is working to host a presentation similar to the one provided by the UNSM locally. Following this presentation it may be in our collective interest to establish a working group to review bylaw, policy and employment considerations.
